STEARNS WEAVER MILLER ATTORNEY BRIAN MCDONOUGH HOSTS 5TH ANNUAL GIVE KIDS A CHANCE GOLF TOURNAMENT

Miami — October 8, 2008 — Stearns Weaver Miller attorney Brian McDonough is hosting the 5th Annual Give Kids A Chance Golf Tournament on Monday, November 3, 2008 at LaGorce Country Club.

Give Kids A Chance is a charitable foundation that McDonough organized to provide college scholarships to high school students from low-income families. Earlier this year the organization awarded college scholarships to 25 high school seniors throughout Florida. The award recipients were selected from more than 200 applicants throughout the State of Florida.

McDonough, whose legal practice focuses primarily on the affordable housing industry, founded Give Kids A Chance several years ago to help lower-income students defray the costs of attending college. The students may re-apply each year for additional assistance with college expenses. Since its inception in 2004, the charity has awarded over 125 four-year scholarships to deserving high school seniors.

“It is such a thrill to be giving scholarships to these hardworking students,” McDonough said. “The most difficult task we face each year is choosing the most deserving recipients from several hundred applicants.”

The 5th Annual Give Kids A Chance Golf Tournament will be held at La Gorce Country Club in Miami Beach on Monday, November 3, 2008. The co-hosts of the event are Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson, P.A., and The Reznick Group, one of the preeminent accounting firms in the country specializing in providing accounting and advisory services to the affordable housing industry.
