OVERVIEW

Jennifer Stearns Buttrick is Of Counsel to the Firm and Director of "Pro Bono" and Community Involvement. Prior to taking on this role, she practiced in the Litigation Department, where she handled commercial litigation at the trial and appellate levels in both state and federal courts and administrative actions in the State of Florida. She now focuses her practice on representing not-for-profit organizations, including independent schools, and on election and voting law matters.

Jennifer received her undergraduate degree in Spanish and History from Florida State University and spent a semester at the University of Salamanca in Salamanca, Spain, where she developed a proficiency in Spanish.
